

STAGE LEFT PRODUCTIONS PRESENTS...

A Forum Theater event by and about people with disabilities. Forum Theater is a participatory, performing arts-based community development practice that offers people constructive, creative, and solution-oriented avenues of personal and social transformation.

Witness.

Participate.

Transform.

A person with a cane is walking through a maze of brick walls. The scene is set against a dramatic sunset or sunrise sky, with warm orange and yellow tones. The person is in the center of the frame, walking away from the viewer down a path in the maze.

POWER PLAY

MONDAY, JULY 28, 2003 • 7:00PM • FREE ADMISSION
STUDIO THEATRE (ROOM F-008), CRAIGIE HALL • U OF C
THREE SHORT PLAYS • THIRTEEN ACTORS • ENDLESS POSSIBILITIES

WARNING: ADULT CONTENT AND COARSE LANGUAGE

for more information, please call 242-3108 or email michele@stage-left.org